MIXOLOGY

Question

How are the digital tools available today determining what we will know 100 years from now about things that happened 1000 years ago?

Archive

One manuscript, many forms. The data are limited (so that we can actually finish things) yet infinitely expandable (we may never finish).

Tools

Whatever we can get our hands on. Annotate, collate, interoperate... Repeat and stir.

Remix

Philosophy. Practice. Invitation. Art. This is how we make old things new. This is how we remember yesterday. Pass it on.
