Disturbed

The flowers kiss her gently and the willows whisper to her softly
In the land of dreams and flowing things
Long wavy grasses and a gentle, tickling wind

Clouds flutter overhead but cannot block the sunshine
Shining but not with light of any real sort
Shining with a gentle immeasurable warmth

A man trips into existence, his untied shoes the culprit.
He hits the ground hard. The flowers shriek. The willows scream.
He hears only the roll of thunder and certain doom.
