Untitled

she holds you,
cupped so softly in her gaze,
with eyes that share the same sun as yours

holds you against the frozen future, holds you in wonder and a hope,
of understanding.

((
there is a celebration down the road.
there is ritual feasting and peals of silence (happily /) gladly broken.

(( but here, the smoke fires burn, here the hymns echo with clanging franticity and yes she stands here, embossed against the field, sealed with the luster of a sunset (blazing/painted)

Bound are you, for ruin?
your voice is hers,
and neither can say

an echo,
or an echo,
a resounding,
a reckoning
slips from the periphery,
and must be seen
