Splash

It's morning at the creek-edge and the question is:
shall I jump as usual and enjoy, as I have hundreds of times, the casual down-thrust of my legs on the other side?

Certain facts are unavoidable, still something in me
refuses to abdicate.

I don't spend much time on it,
I jump
and for the first time in my seventy-seven years I fall in.

What a beautiful splash!
